What's New

A Royal Rendezvous

Located in Lausanne, on the shores of Lake Geneva, a stay at the Beau-Rivage Palace is sure to transport you into a world where you can enjoy calm surroundings and revel in serenity. The Beau-Rivage Palace is an oasis of grandeur, hospitality and luxury. Many of the rooms overlook Lake Geneva and the hotel's picturesque park of 10 acres. The hotel's Cinq Mondes Spa offers a new concept in wellness. The Beau-Rivage Palace is a true centre of dining excellence. The hotel's guestbook contains the names of such social luminaries as: Coco Chanel, Mary Pickford, Gary Cooper and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

Spa-licious

Right in the centre of the city, on the topmost floor of the Palladium Hotel, Mumbai is its spa. Now you might think the hustle of the city would affect the peace but once you're safely shut in the plush spa room, serenity sets in. While the spa boasts an array of calming, rejuvenating, relaxing and energising therapies, which indeed are worth trying out, you might want to relax under its special spell of facials on offer. Like The Morning Mist refresher, a replenishing facial, or the Renewal Facial, which works on exfoliation with a Rainforest Mixture. And if you're looking for a decongesting treatment, opt for the Aqua Floral facial which contains marine extracts. Once you're on the table, expert hands ensure that you're carried away to either deep sleep or to a relaxing realm, either of which is much needed to calm those jaded nerves.

The Geneva Watchmaking Grand Prix is a yearly salute to the excellence of global watch production and thereby contributes to promoting the influence of watchmaking and its values around the world. At the 13th Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève, several independent watchmakers featured prominently amongst the winners, including Vianney Halter for the Innovation Prize. The Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève is a competition to select the best of the best, with high-end watchmakers in each category.

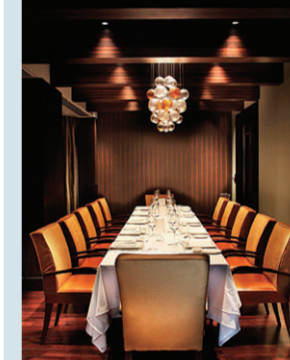

The prize-giving ceremony, presented by Frédéric Beigbeder, took place in the Grand Théâtre de Genève in the presence of the President of the Swiss Confederation, Mr Ueli Maurer. 1,500 guests—stakeholders in the fields of watchmaking, politics and the economy, congregated on this occasion to celebrate the excellence and creativity of the 12th art.

The prestigious international jury of the 13th GPHG brought together the skills of watch experts, collectors and authoritative figures in the watchmaking industry. 15 prizes honoured the year's finest watch creations, including the supreme distinction, the Aiguille d'Or, which was awarded to Girard-Perregaux for the Constant Escapement LM watch.
